

How it all works

Catering How it all works!!!

How to book

1. Because we work on a first received deposit first receive our excellent service basis, we suggest that you pay your deposit asap to book the date. We can change the menu, serving time or amount of guests up to 3 days before the function and amend the balance as needed.
2. The deposit books your date and the balance is paid upon our arrival on the big day.

The big day

1. Our chefs will arrive about 4 hours before the agreed serving time.
2. Here you provide them with the proof of payment for the balance. We do not accept cheques unfortunately.
3. We setup our buffet table and get the meat cooking.
4. We will cook all the meat and then put it in chaffing dishes from where it will be served buffet style on our serving table.
5. We always have paper serviettes, salt, pepper, olive oil and balsamic vinegar on our serving table.
6. We use gas operated braai equipment so there is no smoke. We do however require a wind & weather free environment to do our business in.
7. Our chefs always looks neat and professional (check out our picture gallery on the website)
8. After everyone has had seconds or thirds we dish up the leftovers so please provide us with a container of some sort other wise you wont be able to have that lamb sandwich the next day
9. We usually start clearing up the dirty dishes and load everything about 2 hours after serving time.
10. If you ordered anything that has to stay behind (tables, chairs, glasses) please arrange with us before hand as we will charge additional travel to come pick it up the next day.
11. Last but not least..... ENJOY THE PARTY